(One hour of CLE credit has been applied for)

II. Convention on Biodiversity Beyond National Jurisdiction and Potential Amendments to UNCLOS – Douglas R. Burnett (Chair, International Law of the Sea Subcommittee)

III. Update on CMI Activity – John D. Kimball (Chair, CMI Subcommittee)

IV. Planning for Joint MLA/CMI Meeting in New York, May, 2016 – Vincent Foley (Chair, CMI/MLA Joint Planning Committee and Vice Chair, IOCS Committee), John Kimball (Chair, CMI Subcommittee)

Members planning to attend for CLE credit should note the following:

The Maritime Law Association of the United States has been certified by the New York State Continuing Legal Education Board as an Accredited Provider of continuing legal education in the State of New York.
The MLA will issue CLE credits to New York attorneys who attend the program. New York awards 1 hour of CLE credit for every 50 minutes of program time. The IOCS anticipates a 60 minute program qualifying for 1 New York CLE credit hours in Professional Practice. Attorneys from states other than New York may be entitled to CLE credits for attending the program and must contact their states' CLE boards regarding obtaining CLE credits. This program is appropriate for newly admitted, transitional, and non-transitional experienced attorneys.

CLE financial aid assistance is available for attorneys admitted in New York and MLAUS members who wish to attend CLE courses sponsored by the Maritime Law Association of the United States, but who find it difficult to attend due to cost considerations. Details regarding the Maritime Law Association's financial aid policy and the application process can be obtained by contacting Betsy Bundy by e-mail: Betsy Bundy <Betsy.Bundy@skuld.com>
