

Margaret Stando joined Peacock Piper Tong + Voss LLP as an associate in 2021. Margaret concentrates her practice on the litigation, regulatory, and transactional needs of Peacock Piper's clients in the maritime, maritime terminals, transportation, energy, construction, and other industries. After graduating from the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor with a degree in Ecology and Evolutionary Biology, Margaret attended Tulane University Law School where she obtained her Certificate of Specialization in Admiralty and Maritime Law. While at Tulane, Margaret was a Student Attorney for the Tulane Environmental Law Clinic and a member of the Tulane Maritime Law Journal, which published her article Clause for Concern? The Flawed Expansion of the Himalaya Clause and the Rise of Circular Indemnity Clause in the United States, 44 Tul. Mar. L.J. 323. In 2021, Margaret obtained her LLM in International and Comparative Law from the University of California, Los Angeles School of Law. Margaret is licensed to practice in Louisiana and California.

Elena Mihos is Associate Counsel for ZIM American Integrated Shipping Services Co., LLC. She received her Juris Doctor from the University of Maine School of Law where she obtained an Environmental and Oceans Law Certificate and received the Maine Law Outstanding Scholastic Achievement Award in Maritime and Oceans & Coastal Law. During her time at Maine Law, she was a member of the Judge John R. Brown Admiralty Moot Court Competition Team her 2L year and was a Student Competition Director her 3L year. After graduating in 2020, she attended Tulane University Law School where she obtained an LL.M. in Admiralty & Maritime Law in 2021 and was awarded the Edward A. Dodd, Jr. Award for outstanding achievement in the graduate study of Admiralty Law. While at Tulane, Elena wrote a Limitation of Liability Statistical Analysis, which analyzed and reported all Limitation of Liability cases between 1997-2019 as an update to the Maritime Law Association of the United States' Historical Documents; the work has been added to the MLA's Document Library. Elena is licensed to practice in Florida, Maine, Texas, and Virginia.

Benjamin Nashed is an Attorney Advisor at the Federal Maritime Commission. Benjamin joined the Commission in 2015 as an Attorney-Mediator in the office of Consumer Affairs and Dispute Resolution Services before transitioning to the Office of the General Counsel in 2017. Benjamin was involved in the Commission's Fact-Finding No. 28 Investigation which resulted in the Commission's Interpretative Rule on Demurrage and Detention. Benjamin also played a key role in the Commission's recently concluded Fact-Finding No. 29 Investigation. Prior to joining the Commission Benjamin clerked for the Honorable Thomas F. Brogan for the Superior Court of New Jersey.

Benjamin received a B.A. from Rutgers University and his J.D. from Georgetown University Law Center.