

CHASE A. ESHELMAN, Esq.

Mr. Eshelman graduated Summa Cum Laude from the University of Baltimore School of Law, where he served for two years as a Staff Editor on the University of Baltimore Law Review. He completed his undergraduate studies at the University of Baltimore, which allowed him to jumpstart his legal career and enter law school one year early by taking advantage of the school's early entry program. During the September 2020 through 2021 term, Mr. Eshelman served as a law clerk on the Maryland Court of Special Appeals, where he drafted opinions and conducted research on a wide array of legal topics. Mr. Eshelman joined Lochner Law Firm, P.C. as a law clerk in January 2020, and he returned as an associate following his clerkship with the Court of Special Appeals. Mr. Eshelman is a member of the Maryland State Bar, the Commonwealth of Virginia, and the United States District Court for the District of Maryland.

Growing up near Galesville, Maryland, Mr. Eshelman has spent significant time on the water in a recreational capacity. After joining Lochner Law Firm, P.C., Mr. Eshelman was bitten by the sailing bug, and is now an ASA certified sailor, who loves his time on the water.
