

Brendan Hughes – Brief Biography

- Over 9 years of experience as environmental scientist performing work both offshore, in coastal zone, and onshore mapping ocean currents, studying oil spills as part of NRDA process, designing and implementing contamination studies, and conducting remediations.
- As attorney, focused on maritime and environmental law, with cases involving hazardous waste, allisions, collisions, and cargo interests.
- B.S., Notre Dame
- J.D., Tulane (Maritime Law Journal and Maritime Certificate)