If you plan to attend, you must send an email to me at susan.dorgan@aig.com. I must present a list of those attending to the building's security department prior to the meeting.

Those attending should tell the security personnel that you are visiting the "Curtis" firm. You will be directed to the Curtis' reception desk on the 35th Floor. The meeting will take place on the 36th Floor, but you must first go to the reception desk on the 35th Floor.

The Maritime Law Association of the United States ("MLA") has been certified by the New York State Continuing Legal Education Board as an Accredited Provider of continuing legal education in the State of New York. The MLA will issue New York CLE certificates to attorneys who attend the program. The number of credits that can be earned for attendance at the entire meeting is 1.5 New York CLE credits in Areas of Professional Practice. Attorneys from states other than New York may be entitled to CLE credits for attending the program and must contact their states' CLE boards regarding obtaining CLE credits. This program is appropriate for both newly admitted and experienced attorneys.
