

LeRoy Lambert

LeRoy Lambert is General Counsel of Charles Taylor P&I Management (Americas), Inc. in New York after serving as President and Regional Claims Director since 2009.

He earned his J.D. in 1983 from Tulane University School of Law, where he was Editor-in-Chief of The Maritime Lawyer (now The Tulane Maritime Law Journal). After clerking for Chief Justice John A. Dixon, Jr. of the Louisiana Supreme Court, he moved to New York and practiced maritime law for 25 years at the firms of Healy & Baillie and then Blank Rome. He is admitted to the bars of New York, New Jersey, and Louisiana. From 1994-2009, he was ranked AV by his peers and Martindale Hubbell. Prior to leaving private practice in 2009, he was consistently recognized as a leader in maritime law by Chambers and other legal publications.

LeRoy served as a member of the Board of Directors of the Maritime Law Association of the United States (2015-18). He has been a member of the Society of Maritime Arbitrators in New York since 2016 and was elected Vice-President in May 2019. He is also a member of the German Maritime Arbitration Association in Hamburg. He has been a member of the Board of Directors of the Hellenic American Chamber of Commerce since 2001 and served as its President from 2009 to 2011.

He is a co-author of Voyage Charters (4th ed 2014) and the author of numerous articles. He is a frequent speaker/panelist at legal and maritime conferences and seminars, including the 2015 Nicholas J. Healy Lecture at New York University School of Law.