

MLA Marine Torts and Casualties and Cruise Lines and Passenger Vessels Committees

Joint Spring 2020 Meeting via Zoom
Wednesday, April 29, 2020
2:30 - 4:00 p.m. eastern time

ZOOM CONFERENCE INSTRUCTIONS TO FOLLOW
(Please send e-mail to Castillo@easthamlaw.com to request)

Zoom can only accommodate the first 300 participants

Presentations:

COVID: Widening the Bottle Neck in the Global Supply Chain and Shipping

*Tim House, Vice President – Industry Liaison
Gard (UK) Limited, London, England*

Coping with Covid?: Status of Marine Casualty Response in the U.S.

*Frank Gonynor, Senior Claims Adviser
Gard (North America) Inc., New York, New York*

A P&I Perspective on the COVID-19 Pandemic and the Cruise Line Industry

*Jennifer M. Porter, Senior Claims Executive
Thomas Miller Insurance Services, San Francisco, California*

COVID-19: A Medical Perspective

Addressing the challenges presented when arranging crew medical care and strategies for crew changes in light of travel bans and restricted disembarkation

Dr. Arthur Diskin, MD, FACEP Global Medical Director Future Care, Inc.

Coast Guard Perspectives on Whole of Government Response to Mitigate COVID-19 Impacts to Cruise Ship Passengers and Crews

*Jeff R. Bray (USCG, Ret.), Deputy, Maritime and Operational Law
Capt. Joseph E. Kramek, Chief, Maritime and Operational Law
United States Coast Guard*