Speaker Tanner Stiehl Introduction

I am pleased to introduce you to Tanner Stiehl. Tanner has volunteered to address the MLA Salvage Committee on May 3rd at 2pm. Tanner will be presenting on Maritime Interests in Space Operations. This presentation will address jurisdiction of space launch and recovery operations and salvor rights of entrant space rockets and capsules.

Tanner is a Coast Guard Lieutenant who is currently studying law at the University of Miami. He will be graduating with his JD and LLM in Maritime Law in May 2021. While at the University of Miami, Tanner has spent two years as President, or “Admiral,” of the University of Miami Maritime Law Society. Prior to attending law school, Tanner served in the Coast Guard for 10 years as a vessel inspector and marine casualty investigator in New Orleans, New York and American Samoa. Tanner and his wife, Christine, live in Miami, FL, where he enjoys being an avid fisherman and outdoor enthusiast.
