

Stephen B. Johnson is a member of the firm of Garvey Schubert Barer and practices in the areas of fisheries, environmental law and administrative litigation in its Seattle office. Mr. Johnson is West Coast Vice Chairman of the Maritime Law Association's Committee on Fisheries and Chairman of its Joint Subcommittee on the American Fisheries Act ("AFA"). Mr. Johnson was involved in the drafting of the 2001 lender amendments to the AFA. He is a past chairman of the Maritime and Fisheries Law Section of the King County Bar Association. He is a graduate of Stanford University and Harvard Law School. He can be reached at sjohnson@gsblaw.com.

Bruce A. King is the co-chairman of the Maritime Practice Group at the Seattle law firm of Garvey Schubert Barer. Mr. King is Vice Chairman of the Marine Financing Committee of The Maritime Law Association of the United States. He is a past member of that association's board of directors, and is the immediate past chairman of that association's Subcommittee on Vessel Foreclosures and Insolvency. He is also a past chairman of the American Bar Association's Subcommittee on Maritime Financing. He testified before Congress on behalf of the American Bar Association concerning the 1988 recodification of the Ship Mortgage Act of 1920. He earned a U.S. Merchant Marine mate's license before entering the practice of law. He is a graduate of Brown University and the University of Chicago Law School. He can be reached at bking@gsblaw.com.