

Leonard R. Schwigen is a Senior Litigation Attorney and Line of Business Counsel - Specialty Claims for Farmers Insurance Exchange. His responsibilities encompass managing the defense of claims-based litigation, including claims arising under recreational marine insurance policies issued by member companies of the Farmers Insurance Group of Companies and affiliated companies, and advising the Specialty Claims departments.

Prior to joining Farmers Insurance Exchange, Mr. Schwigen was an associate with the law firm of Gabriel, Herman & Peretz, LLP. His practice included litigation of insurance coverage and bad faith matters, professional negligence of attorneys, accountants, and insurance and real estate professionals, general commercial litigation, and equine law.

Mr. Schwigen is admitted to practice in all the state courts of California, the United States District Court for the Central District of California, and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. He has authored published papers regarding real estate litigation and equine law. He earned his Bachelor of Arts degree from Western Illinois University, and his J.D. from the University of Iowa College of Law.
