EXECUTIVE BIOGRAPHY

Richard J. Decker
Senior Vice President
Ocean Marine
ACE USA

Richard J. Decker is Senior Vice President and responsible for ACE USA's ocean marine unit. His primary focus is on strategic planning and development of all U.S. ocean marine insurance business. He also serves as President of INAMAR Insurance Underwriting Agency, which was formed in 1996 to market its expertise in Ocean Marine and Recreational Marine underwriting as well as risk management, claims, recovery services and training.

Prior to joining ACE USA (formally CIGNA Property & Casualty) in 1991, Decker worked for 13 years at the Royal Insurance Company, first as a marine manager in the New York area and finally as assistant vice president of Royal Global, North America. He also worked at the Insurance Company of North America, a CIGNA company, from 1969 to 1978 as an ocean marine underwriter.

Decker is Vice Chairman of the American Institute of Marine Underwriters and sits on the Executive Committee and Board of Managers. He is treasurer of the National Cargo Bureau, chairs its Finance Committee, and is a member of their Pension Committee and Insurance Committee. He is also a member of the Board of Underwriters of New York where he chairs the Committee of the Commissioners of Pilots.

Decker earned a bachelor's degree from The College of Insurance in New York (now St. John's School of Risk Management and Insurance) and has taught marine cargo insurance at New York University's School for Continuing Education and at the World Trade Institute.
