

CARRIAGE OF GOODS

The Committee of the Carriage of Goods will hold its Spring 2010 meeting on Wednesday, May 5, 2010 at the Seamen's Church Institute at 241 Water Street, New York, New York from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

We are pleased to report that Christopher P. Dunn, a solicitor of the London firm of Waltons & Morse will be our featured speaker and will give a presentation on the subject of piracy.

Dennis Cammarano of Cammarano & Sirna, LLP will follow with his observations on the recent oral argument before the United States Supreme Court in the Regal-Beloit v. K-Line case.

Lastly, there will be a discussion regarding the proposal to repeal and amend the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act, the Harter Act and the Pomerene Act in the advent of the United States' ratification of the Rotterdam Rules.
