ORGANIZATION

A meeting was held at the Association of the Bar of the City of New York on June 21, 1899, for the purpose of organizing a Maritime Law Association.

Mr. Robert Dewey Benedict was elected President.

Messrs. Harrington Putnam, Frederick Dodge and Henry Galbraith Ward were appointed Executive Committee, together with the President virtute officii. Mr. Ward was chosen Secretary.

The meeting adopted as the name of the Association THE MARITIME LAW ASSOCIATION OF THE UNITED STATES.

The members of the Executive Committee were directed to report at the next meeting a statement of the objects of the Association and such rules for its government as they might think convenient.

Hon. Joseph H. Choate and Mr. Wilhelmus Mynderse were appointed delegates, to represent the Association at the meeting of the International Maritime Committee held at Fishmongers' Hall, London, July 13, 14 and 15, 1899.

An adjourned meeting of the Association, held June 28, 1899, at 3 P. M., adopted By-Laws and completed the organization, with 106 members.

At a meeting on December 13, 1935, the present Articles of Association and By-Laws, prepared by the following committee, J. Frank Staley, George M. Lanning, George H. Terriberry, Ira A. Lillick, Lawrence Bogle, Chauncey I. Clark, T. Catesby Jones and Cletus Keating, were adopted.

The Association is the American organization contributing to the work of the International Maritime Committee (Comité International Maritime), founded in 1896.

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION AND BY-LAWS

Adopted December 13, 1935

NAME.

1. The name of the Association shall be THE MARITIME LAW ASSOCIATION OF THE UNITED STATES.

OBJECTS.

2. The objects of the Association shall be to advance reforms in the Maritime Law of the United States, to facilitate justice in its administration, to furnish a forum for the discussion and consideration of problems affecting the Maritime Law and its administration, and to act with foreign and other associations in efforts to bring about a greater harmony in the Shipping Laws, regulations and practices of different nations.

MEMBERSHIP.

3. Any citizen of the United States who is interested in the objects of the Association as stated in Article 2 shall be eligible for membership. No applicant who is not a member of the Bar shall be elected to active membership at any time when the non-lawyer members exceed 10% of the total membership of the Association. Members shall be elected by the Executive Committee or elected by the Association after being reported or recommended as candidates by the Executive Committee. (Amended May 4, 1945 and May 2, 1947.)

There shall be two classes of regular membership: active and associate.

The annual dues of active members shall be $10.00, excepting the annual dues of members of the Bar who have been members of the Bar for less than ten years, which shall be $5.00. The dues shall be payable May 1st of each year. (Amended May 5, 1950.)

Associate members shall pay no dues and shall not have the privilege of voting.

Any member who shall be in arrears for one year or more may be dropped from membership by the Executive Committee. (Amended May 7, 1943 and May 2, 1947.)

HONORARY MEMBERS.

4. The Executive Committee may elect any person who has rendered distinguished service in the advancement of the Maritime Law or its administration, as an Honorary Member. Honorary Members shall pay no dues and shall have no vote.

Officers.

5. Officers of the Association shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary and a Treasurer. They shall be elected at the annual meeting of the Association to serve for one year and until their successors have been elected. (Amended May 4, 1945.)

Duties of Officers.

6. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Association and as such, subject to the Articles of Association and By-Laws, shall generally supervise its affairs, and at the annual meetings shall report as to its condition, activities and progress. He shall have power to call special meetings of the Association and of the Executive Committee.

The President, with the advice and approval of the Executive Committee, may authorize any committee or individual to represent the Association before any Congressional or State Legislative Committee, or before any Federal or State Department, Commission or Board, and present the views of the Association; provided, however, that, if the members of the Executive Committee present or voting at a meeting called to consider the views of the Association after due notice of the object of such meeting are not in unanimous agreement as to such views, then in that event no committee or member of the Association shall be authorized to represent the Association unless and until the subject matter shall have been considered at a meeting of the Association, after due notice, and the Association, by a two-thirds vote of those present, shall have given the required authority.

The President shall have authority to appoint such committees as he may deem necessary to facilitate the business of the Association. Such committees shall report in writing to the President and their terms of office shall expire at the next annual meeting of the Association following their appointment. The President shall be an ex officio member of all committees. (Amended May 4, 1945 and May 3, 1946.)

7. The Vice-President shall perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the President or by the Executive Committee within the terms of the Articles of Association and By-Laws, and shall discharge the duties of the President whenever, in the discretion of the Executive Committee, the disability or absence of the President makes such designation advisable.

8. The Secretary shall keep a record of the proceedings of all meetings of the Association and of all other matters of which a record shall be ordered by the Association.

He shall notify the officers and all members of Committees of their election or appointment, shall issue notices of all meetings, and, in case of special meetings, shall add a brief notice of the object of the call.

He shall be the keeper of the seal of the Association.

He shall keep at all times a complete roll of the members and shall notify new members of their election.

He shall perform such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to him by the Executive Committee.

8. The Treasurer shall on the order of the Executive Committee, collect and disburse all funds of the Association and shall keep regular accounts in books belonging to the Association.

At the annual meeting of the Association and at meetings of the Executive Committee he shall report in writing the balance of money on hand and any existing appropriations which may affect the same.

He shall perform such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to him by the Executive Committee. (Amended May 4, 1945.)

Annual Meeting.

9. The annual meeting of the Association shall be held on the first Friday of May in each year, unless the President, with the concurrence of the Executive Committee, shall fix some other date.

Thirty-five active members present in person shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Association.

Executive Committee.

10. There shall be an Executive Committee, to consist of nine elected members, divided into three classes, and the President, the Vice-President, the Secretary and the Treasurer, who shall be ex officio members thereof. (Amended May 4, 1945.)

At the next annual meeting of the Association, three members of the Executive Committee shall be elected for a term of one year, three members for a term of two years, and three members for a term of three years, and thereafter three members of the Executive Committee shall be elected at each annual election for a term of three years, and also such additional members, if any, as may be necessary to fill vacancies, to hold office during the remainder of the terms of the members whose places they fill.

The Executive Committee shall hold at least four meetings in each year and shall make an annual report to the Association of their activities during the year.

Five members voting either in person or by mail or telegraph shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Executive Committee.

Members of the Executive Committee absent from New York may vote on any matter coming before said committee by mail or telegraph.

All appropriations of funds of the Association must be made or approved by the Executive Committee.

The Executive Committee shall consider from time to time, either on their own motion or at the suggestion of any member in writing, such matters affecting the objects of the Association as in the judgment of the Committee should be the subject of investigation, consideration, discussion and action. The President is authorized and directed to appoint committees whose terms of office shall expire at the next annual meeting of the Association following their appointment to take up such subjects as may be deemed desirable by the Executive Committee. (Amended May 3, 1946.)

The Executive Committee shall study ways and means, and take such measures as it may deem appropriate, to increase the membership and general usefulness of the Association.

11. Vacancies in all elective offices, with the exception of the office of President, shall be filled by the members of the Executive Committee, such appointed incumbents to hold office until the next annual meeting.

Amendments.

12. These Articles and By-Laws may be amended by vote of two-thirds of the members present at any meeting of the Association, provided, however, that notice of any proposed amendment, together with its text, is submitted to the Executive Committee ten days prior to the meeting at which the amendment is to be considered. The Executive Committee shall make a recommendation to the Association regarding the advisability of adopting any proposed amendment.
