

August 7, 1953

THE MARITIME LAW ASSOCIATION
OF THE UNITED STATES

Committee on Supreme Court Admiralty Rules

PROPOSED
ADMIRALTY RULES OF PROCEDURE

Pursuant to resolutions of the special meeting of the Maritime Law Association of the United States held on June 30, 1953, an editing group of the Committee on Supreme Court Admiralty Rules composed of Messrs. John C. Crawley, Arnold W. Knauth and Charles N. Fiddler have carefully reviewed Document 369 heretofore approved in principle by the Maritime Law Association at the Annual Meeting in May and at the special meeting in June, and as directed by the Association have edited and revised the proposed rules.

The present document, therefore, represents the considered and completed proposal of the Association and is submitted as such.

WILLIAM G. SYMMERS, of New York, Chairman
CHARLES S. BOLSTER, of Boston, Vice Chairman
LANE SUMMERS, of Seattle, Vice Chairman
JOHN C. CRAWLEY, of New York, Vice Chairman
EDWARD R. BAIRD, of Norfolk
GEORGE WHITEFIELD BETTS, JR., of New York
ARTHUR M. BOAL, of New York
STUART B. BRADLEY, of Chicago
JOHN R. BROWN, of Houston
CHARLES N. FIDDLER, of New York
(Committee list continued over page)

J. FRANKLIN FORT, of Washington
CODY FOWLER, of Tampa
LASHER B. GALLAGHER, of Los Angeles
JOSEPH W. HENDERSON, of Philadelphia
LYMAN HENRY, of San Francisco
FRANCIS H. INGE, of Mobile
ARNOLD W. KNAUTH, of New York
RUSSELL A. MACKEY, of San Francisco
ROBERT G. MCCREARY, of Cleveland
FREDERICK W. MUELLER, of New York
FRANK B. OBER, of Baltimore
CLAUDE E. WAKEFIELD, of Seattle
BENJAMIN W. YANCEY, of New Orleans