FITZ-HENRY SMITH, JR.

The following resolution was then offered and passed, viz.:

WHEREAS, Honorable Addison Brown died at the City of New York on the 9th day of April, 1913; and

WHEREAS, Judge Brown was an active member of this Association from the time of its formation until the day of his death, and was its President from 1907 to 1911, when failing health compelled him to relinquish the office; and

WHEREAS, the Association is aware of the distinguished career of Judge Brown as United States Judge, and of his accomplishments in various capacities outside of the domain of the law: THEREFORE BE IT

Resolved, that this Association recognize the services rendered to it by Judge Brown, and appreciates the loss to its membership occasioned by his death, and to perpetuate such recognition and appreciation it causes this resolution to be spread upon its minutes.

The meeting thereupon adjourned.

EDWARD GRENVILLE BENEDICT,
Secretary.
